WHAT WE CAN DO

FOR YOU BEFORE, DURING AND AFTER THE SALE

SAVE TIME WHILE HELPING UNITE THE BEST OF THE BEST

There are stories of all sorts when the topic of conversation is how to work with contractors. Sometimes you can't find them when needed, sometimes you do and they deliver shotty work, but amongst the noise, you discover the music. In the midst of bad experiences, you often find a selective number of them performed as they said they would, leaving behind a positive mark, a beautiful story piece you can be proud to show friends when visiting, or enjoy every time you walk by. Made up of many services, contracts, and maintenance, managing a property can be a process of its own, and often take up way too much time. We can relate, and this is why we are here to be the resource you can always count on, and to connect you with the service providers we trust.

" Quality is never an accident. It is always the result of intelligent effort. "

JOHN RUSKIN

THE DREAM TEAM ON YOUR SIDE

From calling for repairs hoping they'll show up, to investing time to research the market trends in case you are thinking of selling, this is where we can help you.

Here at DREAM, we have created a portal where our clients can refer their favorite contractors, and after meeting with them to validate they are still in business and open to receiving referrals, we often add them to this list that you can access right on our website.

Our clients use this portal to save time and stress by connecting with reliable services. Consider us your source of referrals, whether related to real estate or not. We are on the quest to continue to partner with the "Best of the Best" professionals who are happy to serve you.

REAL ESTATE NEWS YOU CAN USE

Naturally, changes are often just as exciting as they are stressful. The thought of hiring contractors or any professional can be daunting at times. We have connected many of the reliable sources you will need, not only for the transaction process but way beyond! We have insurance agents (property, auto, and health), lenders, closing agents and legal professionals, pest control and mold services, home inspectors, and counting! We are about to areas you want to visit, shops and restaurants to the list too. The more resourceful we can be for you, the better! Our mission is to give you all you need to help you on the spot and while on the go!

Are you always looking to be aware of the latest, most reliable information along with noteworthy statistics about your local market? We can help!

By the way, we have often found that the data we share with our clients can diverge from national market conditions, and from what the media announces.

You can use our DREAM Team support line at 508-534-9638 to ask for specific advice in regard to property maintenance, suggestions when you need upgrades, or a market analysis to maximize the impact your choices will have when it comes to the potential resale value of your property.

“ Searching and learning is where the miracle process all begins. ”

JIM ROHN

Property owners appreciate knowing the value of their assets. This is why our team is always staying active in the real estate market. It can be exciting to embrace changes, just as much as it can be stressful. The thought of hiring a given contractor or any professional to help can be daunting at times. We connect many of the reliable sources you need to you, not only for the transaction process but way beyond! We have insurance agents (home, auto, and health), lenders, closing agents, legal professionals, pest control services, home inspectors, and we are about to add shops and restaurants to the list too. The more resourceful we can be for you, the better! You can leave behind all the chores that take your time and skew your focus away from what truly matters most. Our mission is to give you all you need to help you on the spot and while on the go!

Here at DREAM, we are here to take inconveniences off your hands, ensuring you are connected to a professional that was once recommended to us. You don't have to worry about them not showing up, and if they ever do, we know we can count on you to report it to us. Our list isn't just a page that never gets updated. We work on making it better every day and your feedback is essential to its accuracy!

When you have a reliable network of professionals that don't pay to be in the group but instead have to deliver great service in order to stay in it, it is essential to be able to count on the people using their services to report back. Making sure you get the best is the least we can do to thank you for your trust and your support. If any of the specialists on our list deliver anything less than first-class services, please let us know.

We take pride in providing you with the support you need such as maintenance, investments, refinancing, estate planning, property and portfolio assessments, marketing services, you name it. Here you'll have support like never before. Call us to discover how much easier your life is meant to be here at DREAM.
